...ABOUT THAT STRAT

In a past newsletter I wrote about "Brownie" my new American Standard Strat and how initially I was disappointed when it arrived as it was not set up properly and had a persistent buzz on the low strings. Eventually I decided to change the strings and get it set up properly and upon the advice of friends I took it to Charlie Chandler's Guitar Experience in Hampton. If Charlie was good enough for Mr Clapton and Mr Townsend, then he could handle my "Brownie". While there I saw a thing of beauty, lovely woodgrain veneer, SSH pickups, lightweight and nice a low action. She sounded great too especially as the price was less than a tenth of the cost of the "Brownie".

So a Yamaha Pacifica has now joined my growing guitar collection.

Charlie Chandler gigs in our area so look out for him on Lemon Rock

Question – When does it stop being a hobby and become an obsession?
